Whitehall, September 24.

Extract of a Letter from the Earl of Yarmouth to the Right Honorable Lord Grenville, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Department of Foreign Affairs. Dated Maikammer, September 15, 1793.

AN Aid-de-Camp of the Duke of Brunſwick is juſt arrived, with an Account that the Duke of Brunſwick was Yeſterday attacked by the French near Pirmazens, but that, by a very judicious Manœuvre, he turned their Flank ſo compleatly as to ſurround them, when they threw down their Arms and ſurrendered themſelves Priſoners of War, to the Amount of 3000. He took 27 Pieces of Cannon and Two Howitzers. The Number of the [illegible] cannot be aſcertained, as the Duke was left in the Purſuit. He alſo was ſo fortunate, in the Courſe of the Operations, as to burn the Baggage and Tents of another Body of French, encamped near Bitche. While the Duke was ſo well employed on one Side, General Kalkreuth was attacked in another Quarter, but very faintly; and the Action concluded by his cutting to Pieces the Regiment emphatically called les Sans Culottes, and taking 67 Men of another Corps.
